Just-What-I-Always-Wanted-Dep't: King Ibn Saud of Saudi Arabia has just presented Greek shipping colossus Aristotle Onassis with a superb Arab horse. But Aristotle is so busy circling the globe to keep an eye on his vast shipping empire he doesn't quite know what to do with it. It's a wonder His Majesty doesn't give his friends cars. At the moment he owns 3,000. His parking space and garage at Riad alone costs around $1,600,000. Among the 54 princes of the royal house, his brothers and their sons—they own another 2,000 cars. I guess in that land of oil and harems a young prince says, "Dad, may I borrow the cars?"
